What is Astrology

Astrology is the study of the effects of planetary forces upon man. It is not fortune telling. It is one of the best methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character is destiny. If man can change his character, then man will have changed his destiny. The main uses of astrology are diagnosis of health and sickness, character analysis, vocational guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Astrology does not show anything but tendencies. A man can rule his stars by exerting his will. If a man decides to flow with the tide of life, then the tendencies indicated in the birth chart will at some time have their effect. The one thing a birth chart does not show is the WILL of the individual and how he may exert it. The matter of exercising free will is left entirely up to the individual. The wise man rules his stars, the fool is ruled by them. Astrology forewarns and being forewarned, a man is thus forearmed to better cope with the struggles of life.

Leo Ascendant

People with Leo rising tend to be generous, proud, emotional, romantic, extroverted, vain, egotistical, courageous, sentimental, self-confident, showy, and want to shine and be successful in wherever they go and whatever they do.

They like to 'rule' and have homage paid to them for their 'royal' nature. You like to take risks and can sometimes be foolhardy, but you definitely have a zest for living.

The worst thing someone can do to you is to hurt your pride or be unappreciative of you. You wear your heart on your sleeve in matters of love and you need a partner you can be proud of and you want them to be proud of you.

You are faithful to and protective of those you love. You can be quick-tempered, but you tend to not stay angry for long. You like to play the kingly role and have a sense of drama surrounding you.

You are a ham. You like being the center of attention and will do things just to get that attention. You can be stubborn in a sunny sort of way.

Your roar is worse than your bite. If your pride is hurt or your dignity is trampled on, then watch out, because you can forgive, but you don't forget.

You enjoy sports and out-of-doors activity. Your vitality and spirit are strong except if your heart is broken in love. Your need for love and affection is very great and you need to feel appreciated.

If frustrated, you lose your desire for living. The Sun rules Leo so the Sun will be important in your chart.

Sun Profile

The SUN symbolises the ESSENTIAL SELF; the WILL; CONSCIOUSNESS; GROWTH; the EGO; LIBIDO; OBJECTIVITY; INDIVIDUALITY; WHOLENESS; and the SPIRIT. It is the MASCULINE PRINCIPLE in contrast to that symbolised by the MOON. It is personified by RULERS; LEADERS; PUBLIC FIGURES; the FAMOUS; and PERSONALITIES.

Sun in 10th house

This is a very powerful placement of the Sun and indicates ambition and the desire to lead. You enjoy assuming responsibility, power and authority. There is strong managerial skill evident in your nature.

TENTH HOUSE

The Tenth House is commonly referred to as the House of Social Status. It is about the place we have attained in our social (or work/career) grouping and in society as a whole. Think status, the authority it conveys, and consequently, the role we take in our community.

You are dignified and have a strong will to succeed. You desire to make your mark in the world and have a strong sense of purpose. You work hard to hone required skills and qualifications and you desire recognition and reward for a good job done. Often recognition means more than monetary reward. You believe in leading by example.

This is a common position for politicians.

There is often a strong identification with the father and he may be an influence in your life direction. With this placement identity is often connected to career and life achievements. You like to be seen as strong, influential and authoritative.

You desire honor and recognition, to which end you will work hard to acquire the necessary skills and knowledge to achieve this. You have a strong moral sense and abhor anything demeaning to your dignity and moral responsibility. You feel required to set a good example for others. Nobility and the ability to rise above pettiness and trivialities is your strong point.

Sun in Gemini

Geminians are friendly, clever, talkative, versatile, curious, perceptive, intuitive, and logical. At times they can also be quite contradictory, restless, two-faced, critical, and impatient. Gemini people enjoy and need work that includes a great deal of variety. They love to do several things all at the same time, sometimes making them late for appointments. They abhor boredom. Geminians tend to flit from one experience to another, gathering in all types of information along the way, but seldom getting to the depth of any subject. They go broad and not deep. Persistence is not their strong suit. Gaining knowledge and disseminating it is their real talent. Hence, they make wonderful salespeople or teachers if they stick around long enough to get all the facts instead of only half the story. Even if they do not possess all the facts, since they are never at a loss for words, they will continue with their story as if they did have all the facts. It is important for a Geminian to seek intellectual satisfaction. Mental stagnation turns them off, so they read extensively and communicate widely in order to satisfy this longing for mental stimulation. This discontent can make them either very ambitious, or it can incline them to jump from one thing to another, searching for the greener grass which never appears. Geminians usually think quickly on their feet and have the ability to use the right words in any situation. They possess tremendous wit and a good sense of humor. Other people may have difficulty in keeping up with their rapid change of subjects.

Moon Profile

The Moon symbolises protective urges, the unconscious mind, emotion, the home, feeling, reflection, instinctual responses, the family, rhythm, self-image, heredity, and nurturing. It represents the feminine principle, and complements the Sun. It is personified by the mother, wife, women in general, supportive figures, and those who protect.

This Mercury position bestows good organisational ability and a capacity to plan for the future. Your career is not accidental, but the result of deliberate plans designed to achieve specific goals.

TENTH HOUSE

decision or an action, especially if you have not been given time to think it all through and evaluate the practicalities of the situation. Once your mind is made up, that's it. It will take a lot to undo it. Perseverance is one of your best traits. You enjoy sustaining what others have started, especially if you can see tangible, practical results. You love to build things. You succeed not so much because of your mental brilliance, but because you have the ability to concentrate and follow a project through to its completion. You may have an artistic or musical aptitude. Perhaps you sing or speak for a living. Common sense is not uncommon in you.

Venus Profile

VENUS symbolises RELATIONSHIP; HARMONY; LOVE; ATTRACTION; ART; BEAUTY; PLEASURE; RELAXATION; FRIENDS and SEX. It is FEMININE SEXUALITY in contrast to the masculine sexuality of MARS. We thus each have a masculine and feminine side, to a greater or lesser degree.

NINTH HOUSE

You love travel not just for the sake of sunning yourself in exotic climes but because you love to immerse yourself in other cultures and expand awareness. Most of your learning takes place via travel, either in person or via interaction with a variety of people. You welcome different opinions, attitudes and cultural beliefs as these interest you.

Romance often happens during travel and your marriage partner may well be from another country or culture or at the very least well-travelled and well read. You look to romance not just for companionship and sex, but also as a way to expand your horizons, life experiences and to escape what is dull and routine.

Venus in the 9th people are often attracted to adventure seekers who push boundaries.

You enjoy learning and will pursue higher education especially in fields like the social sciences, arts, humanities and law.

Venus in Taurus

You are tremendously responsive to beauty and physical appearances, and the physical attractiveness of your partner is very important to you. You enjoy indulging yourself and the ones you love and it is too easy for you to be extravagant and perhaps to put too much value in material things. Comfort is important to you and you hate getting your hands dirty. At times you can be lazy, hoping or expecting someone else to do the dirty work. Self-control needs to be developed and added to the qualifications you already possess? warmth, charm, sympathy, artistic. Mars Profile

Mars in 9th house

This shows a compelling need for adventure and a pioneering spirit. You are extremely competitive and believe in living for the day.

NINTH HOUSE

IX

The Ninth House is commonly referred to as the House of Philosophy. In keeping with that theme, it's our search for meaning which is the focal point here.

Sports, religious, social and educational causes attract you. You may be a crusader, aggressively promoting the ideals you believe in. If your chart shows a sufficiently developed mind to give a broad understanding of life, you can be invaluable in leading action for social and political reform. You want to inspire people to live with more ethical modes of behavior and attitudes. You will actively support institutions of higher learning, religion and philosophy which serve mankind. Because you are interested in action not just lip service, your efforts are highly effective. Deeds not words, is your motto.

You are an adventure seeker, looking for a broad experience of life, this often leads you into foreign travel as well as into the realms of higher education and philosophy. You are a highly moral person and all your actions, social intercourses and activities are marked by your etiquette and belief in fair play. when you charge, just like the bull Taurus stands for. You are reliable and consistent and can handle more of the workload than most around you. You prefer a regular routine, with definite hours and clearly defined responsibilities and tasks. You enjoy building and seeing the results of your hard work. Things you can put your hands on appeal to you. You need to see practical results, not theory and you are not satisfied with intangibles like just having a good time. At the same time, you have a lazy, comfort-loving side and there is often a good deal of inertia for you to overcome before you get going. Once you get a momentum going, your energy level is strong and steady. Keeping things going is your strength, especially once someone else starts them. Material well-being and security are large factors in determining what you do. Your stamina and persistence is your great strength but it can also work against you; you can get caught in a rut and refuse to seize new opportunities. You also tend to play it safe and to limit yourself in that way. Change scares you. So does disease and pain. At times you have a decided stubborn streak where no one can reach you. Possessiveness and jealously may cause problems for you in relationships. Money and possessions are important to you for the feelings of security they bring. Re-evaluate your values. Sharing should be cultivated. Your tongue may be quite unruly at times.

You put a lot of stress on yourself to follow what you currently believe, yet allow others to be flexible in their approaches and offer up multiple ways of doing things. While you may not fit in perfectly with people who believe things, you have the capacity to bring new ideas when you're willing to trust that your different view is, in fact, exposing others to new possibilities. Being the eternal student should be enjoyable, not stressful, so take time to relax. our gut-level sense of self-worth. You're hypersensitive to what it means if others rush you in any way, or demand immediate responses. Placing value on the wrong things seems to be a real danger. You seem to fall victim to the misconception that mistakenly places too much emphasis and value on lower earthly pleasures. You may have the urge to hold on to every penny while denying yourself any of life's pleasures, or a rejection of "those low, materialistic values" and, consequently, a life of poverty. Your energy antenna is working through the lens of the need to slow down and get centred in the body in order to know what's true. Make sure you give yourself time and space to figure out what's best for you, as if you rush into what others expect or demand, you'll trust yourself less and less over time. This placement centres your consciousness in your body and tending to its basic needs whenever they arise, developing a self-validating response to the reality of your physical needs, which can make it easier to do the same with your emotional needs. At some point in life, you felt that you didn't get enough of something, whether it was material things, or emotional, mental or spiritual attention. You feel unfulfilled and undernourished in some way. You need to learn to value yourself and treat yourself the way you want others to treat you. Love is all around. You are born to love and be loved.

Remember, the houses are not "energies" like the elements or planets, nor do they color the expression of energies like the zodiac signs do. The houses are WHERE these energies are most likely to manifest. The houses are the fields of experience, not the experience themselves.
