About Solar Return Report

A Solar Return chart is an astrology chart calculated for the moment when the Sun returns to its exact natal position. It is a powerful technique for examining the themes and issues that will arise for you during your solar year - the year that runs from birthday to birthday. Often the turning point represented by your birthday time of the year brings a new phase of your life into existence, and the Solar Return chart helps you to examine this new perspective on your life and what your year may bring.

Astrology is the study of the effects of planetary forces upon man. It is not fortune telling. It is one of the best methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character is destiny. If man can change his character, then man will have changed his destiny. The main uses of astrology are diagnosis of health and sickness, character analysis, vocational guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Solar Return Ascendant in Taurus

This is a money year when you are able to improve your financial security, get a raise or move to a job with better financial prospects or more job security. This is a good time to grow your business organically and often hard work and diligence is enough to produce excellent results and better financial performance.

Making a major purchase of a car, jewelry, gold or another asset could be part of your year and you may attend auctions or spend a great deal of time looking through catalogues to research a considered purchase for yourself or your business.

A solar return ascendant in Taurus can lead to some passivity, there is a need to foster stability and avoid doing things that add uncertainty and risk to your life. You are likely to avoid conflict and to focus on your core competencies rather than exploring and developing new talents. This is not an adventurous year, however it's one where, if you desire, you can make solid and steady progress on practical matters, meaning you will have a lot to show for your efforts at the end of the year. It may be year when not much happens as Taurus can generate an easy going and even lazy vibe, and you may not feel the impetus to doing anything ground breaking.

Realism and tenacity are hallmarks of your attitude this year, you can also be quite obstinate and so you are no push over, when you make up your mind you will dig your heels in. It's a year when you can form solid new friendships which can bring you happiness and also be useful in terms of your business ventures.

Health issues may include weight gain and you should avoid cream, ice-cream and other dairy products as these increase your susceptibility to tonsillitis and throat infections which come along with a Taurus influence. If you enjoy sweet foods and eating, you may struggle to keep to a calorie restricted diet.

This is a very helpful solar return ascendant if you need to fulfil obligations and have a specific goal in mind, as you can be pragmatic and consistent about the way you go about your goals. It's also a lovely ascendant to have if you need to deal with people, plan social events and make friends in new situations.

WESTERN HEMISPHERE ANALYSIS

The western hemisphere includes houses 4-9.

This indicates a year in which group activities and cooperation with others and teamwork is very important. You may rely on others for support either emotionally or financially.

You will have to coordinate your activities with other individuals, groups or companies. Your partner's decisions, if you are married, may have ramifications for you.

You may be more involved in negotiations or mediation, you may also have contact with lawyers, international law or regulations. These activities can be very successful and you may improve your own reputation via your role these activities.

This could be a year when you are more active in your community or perhaps more cognizant of your collective responsibilities. You may be more reserved about pursuing your aims directly and could look to others to team up with or enlist as advisers.

New people may enter your life and you could begin a major new relationship, either romantic or for business. You may pool funds or resources to begin a large scale project with others. While significant relationships can begin, it remains to be seen whether these will be good for your own aspirations or the unfolding of your destiny.

This year is often less about your own aims and more about offering your services or advice to others and managing their projects successfully. You can achieve awards or receive a bonus from your company. This is a good year to expand your client base or gain significant new clients.

While your destiny is in part in the hands of others; you will also have increasing responsibilities and obligations to loved ones who are more dependent on you.

One pitfall this year is being too obsequious, too subservient and possibly losing some personal power while you fulfil the needs of others, which can be quite pressing.

SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE ANALYSIS

The southern hemisphere includes houses 7-12, i.e. above the horizon.

If the majority of the planets are in the southern hemisphere, then the year is likely to have an external focus where you are more concerned about professional goals, group activities and being seen and recognized for your work and talents. There is a need to gain power and project it; you are attracted to management, leadership and are keen to promote your work

The southern hemisphere emphasis indicates a concern for material success and tangible or quantifiable results. You may enjoy travelling and being among people for the purpose of professional advancement and expansion of opportunity. The problem with this emphasis is that you can be overly concerned with what others think and measuring yourself against society's expectation rather than in terms of your own personal priorities. It's important not to get carried away with the flow and lose yourself in the process. Hold on to your integrity and be careful not to sacrifice too much for the sake of success. Peer pressure and also pressure from your superiors may be more noticeable and your ability to adapt to the demands of authority figures is tested.

The emphasis this year is more about getting ahead, there is little time for reflection and so while you may be pleased with the ground you gain, whether this will be emotionally fulfilling remains to be seen the following year.

You may use logic and adhere to the advice of others as you are not as likely to trust yourself and your own intuition; this may mean you follow the crowd only to get misled by a herd mentality. If something doesn't feel right, take note, even if you are the only one who's feeling that.

Make sure your goals make sense in the context of your life plan and don't let influential people in your life set your agenda; it's important to know your mind as even those who want the best for you, may not have the answers which are right for you.

However, if you are true to yourself in pursuing aims, you can be very successful this year in terms of career and personal goals. This is an ideal time for action, rather than planning and so get busy and be bold.

SR Sun Square With Natal Uranus

Challenging

Escaping is not the solution, you have to learn new ways to make your life better and more interesting. This coming year you'll notice one thing after another in your life, that you want to change. You'll question all your motives, and you'll wonder how in the heck you managed to make it so long doing things as you have been. Be careful with this attitude. While you can benefit from these thoughts by reorganizing a cubicle or managing your finances more effectively, you may also be inclined to make a rash decision that could affect you for years to come. You may suddenly find yourself bored with a relationship or job, but just quitting is probably not the best solution. Instead, spice up the relationship by taking the two of you on an exotic adventure, and improve your work situation by taking on a new project or coming up with a unique solution to an old problem. Your mind is highly charged, and you'll need to come up with creative ways to keep it active. Writing may help you a lot to process your thoughts in right direction. Challenging

You have to learn to accept the change and understand that the stability you crave for will come to you from within. You yourself can be your support system. Unfortunately, throughout the year, that will be made more difficult, as the harder to try to get a grip on current situations, the harder they'll be to grasp. You'll have to be your own rock . Tempting as drugs or alcohol may be, they'll only cause you even more problems. If you need to escape, visit your own imagination; create a world of your own into which you can disappear when things just get too complicated. Or, if that doesn't work for you, try something easier like going to a movie or taking a short trip.Romance will also be difficult now. Since your understanding of yourself and your world is inaccurate, and you don't really see others for who they are, it will be challenging for you to relate to them. Remember that there must be some boundaries between you and others in order for the relationship to work out. Your best bet is to take many personal retreats so you have plenty of time for spend time alone and look within.

This year will be a magical time for love, passion, romance and sex. If you're already with someone, things will work out smoothly. You'll get along with each other well, and you'll be able to just go with the flow, no matter what comes up. That said, you'll also find that the relationship is full of passion, with the perfect blend of soft romance and fiery aggression. You two will certainly enjoy each other this year. Not with someone? That probably won't last long. This is a year of love for you, and you'll practically ooze romantic energy. An extremely strong magnetic force field will attach itself to you, and it will become impossible for you to not attract people. In fact, pretty much all you have to do is go stand outside and wait for someone to come up and ask you out. There's also a very good chance that someone you meet this year could turn into a very long-lasting relationship. But there's more to the coming year than just romance. Your creative skills will reach new heights, and they'll help you find unique solutions to any problem -- as long as you can keep yourself motivated and at the peak of performance. In reality, this is because you'll have a very forward-thinking bent. In time everyone else will catch up (due, at least in part, to your incredible efforts), but in the meantime, you'll have to deal with working in defense of your cause. If possible, use this as a positive outlet for that rebellious, fighting spirit that will be building up within you. A transformation is just around the corner, and you are fortunate in that this will be a smooth, easy ride. You've been told in the past to trust your gut and that couldn't be more true than in the coming months. Listen closely to what your body is saying -- it's never wrong if you take the time to interpret it accurately rather than just jump in with whatever crosses your mind first. You'll also be extremely motivated when it comes to work, and your leadership skills will be topnotch. If the reality around you seems a downer sometimes, it's absolutely fine to engage your mind in your dream world. You may not be able to focus on your goals this year. Utilize this time to flourish your imagination and make productive use of your creativity. Your mind will keep wandering throughout the year from one idea to another. which will create lot of confusion in your life. Your world will be filled with miscommunications, which will lead you to become as flakey as ever. You'll also tend to be more forgetful than usual, which will just add to the flakiness. You might just want to warn everyone right from the start that they need to be prepared for this, so they don't get too frustrated. It would also be wise for you to get a calendar that you'll look at frequently and write all of your plans in only that one calendar. Your dream world will also be a cause of confusion for you. You'll find you have a hard time connecting to your dreams, and both remembering and understanding them will be a challenge. At the same time, it'll be easy for you to get lost in your daydreams and you could have difficulties finding your way back to reality. This chaos of the mind might tempt you to consider alternative forms of escape. If that includes watching a movie or reading a fictional story, then go for it -- these will enhance your imagination and give you a respite from reality. Just be sure to avoid turning to drugs or alcohol, as they'll only make the situation worse.

Your eyes will be as big as saucers taking in every option, but your mind will be sharp as a nail picking through every detail and making anything you set your sights on a possibility. The only real problem you'll face will be your tendency to just accept things as they are. Why bother fixing what ain't broke, right? Maybe. Or maybe there's something even better out there for you and its rewards will far exceed the effort you put into getting there. You have the potential to bring to life any reality you desire, especially when it comes to work and finances, so make sure you don't let a bit of laziness here and there prevent you from reaching a higher level of success. All you have to do is get out on occasion and be social. It's just an all-around great time for romance! That's not to say that everything will be peaches and cream every moment of the year. You may have some anger issues you'll need to deal with. Impulsive buying could put a damper on your savings. You could find yourself falling into a defensive mode at the drop of a hat, especially about a relationship you're in. You'll also want to make sure that whoever attracts your attention is someone with depth -- looks will be important to you, but you can't base a relationship on looks alone. Freedom is a state of mind, and no one is completely free to do everything they want. It's all about give and take. If you really want to be successful and happy, you first have to understand what is it that you really need from a career or relationship. Try to get the clarity before you come to any conclusion. Take some time off to think from all angles and every perspective. Don't rush into making decisions which you might regret later. You may feel trapped in a relationship or a job. But are you really trapped, or are you just bored? You need to be more responsible with your approach. There's a good chance that everything you're doing -- pushing people away, trying to escape from a current situation -- is really a defense mechanism. What you need to do is figure out if someone or something is really taking too much from you, or if you're just making excuses to get away. It's possible that you've let yourself become extremely picky and you're waiting for the perfect person or situation.
